

Free! Conservation Training for Women Landowners

Learn how to improve soil and water quality on your land.

- Discover local resources and government programs that can help fund environmentally friendly land management.
- Meet other women landowners interested in conservation.
- Ride our tour bus to see farms that use conservation practices.

WOMEN
CARING FOR THE LAND

2016 Workshops:

Green Bay — Monday, May 2
NWTC Landscape Horticulture Building, Room 107

Algoma — Tuesday, May 3
Farm Market Kitchen

Ephraim — Wednesday, May 4
Unitarian Universalist Fellowship of Door County

8:30 a.m. to 3 p.m.
(includes free lunch)

Facilitated by the MOSES Rural Women's Project

Register by April 27: mosesorganic.org/rural-womens-project/events

Sponsored by:

