

Do I need a Building Permit?

Yes, Building Permits are required (ToL ZO Section 10.1101):

1. Where any building or other structure is erected, moved or structurally altered.
2. Where any land is substantially altered.
3. Where 50 percent or more of the fair market value of a structure is destroyed and it is being repaired or altered.
4. For any accessory building or structure where the market value of the labor and materials exceeds $2,000.
5. For any interior improvements where the market value of the labor and materials exceeds $2,000.
6. For any exterior improvements having a cost or fair market value of $2,000 or more.

No, a Building Permit is not required (ToL ZO Section 10.1102):

1. For any accessory structure where the market value of the labor and materials does not exceed $2,000, provided that such building conforms to this Ordinance including all the setback, yard and open space requirements.
2. For any interior improvements or alterations to an existing building where the market value of the labor and materials does not exceed $2,000, which shall not affect a structural change in use or encroach upon any yard or open space.
3. For any exterior improvements having a cost or fair market value of less than $2,000 which shall not affect a structural change in use or encroach upon any yard or open space.
4. Any ADA structures.

Note: A Building Permit cannot be authorized if the applicant has any outstanding violations or obligations with the Town of Lincoln. These must be satisfied before a Building Permit Application can be issued. (see ToL ZO Section 10.1107: Delinquency)

Application for a Building Permit shall be made to the Lincoln Town Building/Zoning Administrator by the landowner or authorized agent and shall include the following (ToL ZO 10.1103):

1. Plans and information as required.
2. Estimated cost of the construction activity.
3. Building Permit Fee as determined by the Building/Zoning Administrator.
4. A Building Permit shall be granted or denied in writing by the Building/Zoning Administrator. The permit shall expire within six (6) months unless substantial work has commenced. Any permit issued in conflict with the provisions of this Ordinance shall be null and void.
5. The application for a Town of Lincoln Building Permit is on the following page.

If your construction project is not covered by the above, see the page titled: Do I need a Site Plan Review?
